Connecting point...

When have my words become stones?

We all remember the old phrase, "Sticks and stones may break my bones, but words will never hurt me." However, the truth is that words can hurt...and sometimes do even worse.

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus is confronted with a crowd ready to stone a woman caught in sin. He challenges them with these words: "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone." Slowly, they drop their stones and walk away. But I wonder: How often do we throw stones with our words?

Punto de conexión...

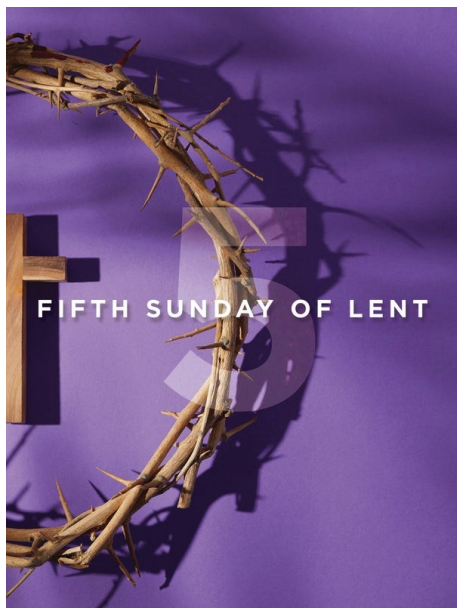

¿Cuándo mis palabras se han convertido en piedras?

Todos recordamos la vieja frase: "Los palos y las piedras pueden quebrarme los huesos, pero las palabras nunca me harán daño". Sin embargo, la verdad es que las palabras pueden herir... y a veces incluso peor.

En el Evangelio de este domingo, Jesús se enfrenta a una multitud dispuesta a apedrear a una mujer sorprendida en pecado. Los reta con estas palabras: «El que esté libre de pecado, que tire la primera piedra». Lentamente, dejan caer las piedras y se marchan. Pero me pregunto: ¿Con qué frecuencia tiramos piedras con nuestras palabras?

Lanzamos piedras cuando chismeamos y cuando criticamos a alguien por ira,

We throw stones when we gossip and when we tear someone down out of anger, jealousy, or frustration. We also throw stones when we label people unfairly, when we make assumptions, and when we refuse to give someone the benefit of the doubt. Furthermore, we throw stones when we let division, politics, or pride push us into judging others harshly—sometimes without even knowing the full story.

In today's world, those stones are everywhere. Social media and public conversations are full of them. So often, we speak without mercy, patience, or kindness. And the damage goes far beyond broken bones; it breaks trust, divides families, creates enemies out of neighbors, and silences those already struggling.

But Jesus calls us to something radically different. He doesn't just tell the crowd to put down their stones; He responds to the woman with mercy. He doesn't ignore her sin, but He also doesn't shame or condemn her. He simply says, "Go, and from now on do not sin anymore."

That's the other part of this equation. It's not just about stopping the hurtful words; it's about replacing them with words that heal, forgive, and show mercy—words that build up instead of tear down.

Right now, when there's so much division, anger, and blame in our world, this message couldn't be timelier. Before we speak (or comment, criticize, or post on social media), we need to ask ourselves, "Am I throwing stones with my words?" And if we've hurt someone, "Am I willing to offer words that heal?"

This week, let's pay attention to the words we use—both in person and online. Let's drop the stones we're tempted to throw, instead choosing words of compassion, patience, and mercy.

celos o frustración. También lanzamos piedras cuando etiquetamos a las personas injustamente, cuando hacemos suposiciones y cuando nos negamos a darle a alguien el beneficio de la duda. Además, lanzamos piedras cuando dejamos que la división, la política o el orgullo nos impulsen a juzgar a los demás con dureza, a veces sin siquiera conocer la historia completa.

En el mundo actual, esas piedras están por todas partes. Las redes sociales y las conversaciones públicas están llenas de ellas. Con mucha frecuencia, hablamos sin piedad, paciencia ni amabilidad. Y el daño va mucho más allá de las fracturas; destruye la confianza, divide familias, crea enemigos entre los vecinos y silencia a quienes ya están pasando apuros.

Pero Jesús nos llama a algo radicalmente diferente. No solo le dice a la multitud que deje las piedras; responde a la mujer con misericordia. No ignora su pecado, pero tampoco la avergüenza ni la condena. Simplemente dice: «Vete, y de ahora en adelante no piques más».

Esa es la otra parte de la ecuación. No se trata solo de detener las palabras hirientes; se trata de reemplazarlas con palabras que sanen, perdonen y muestren misericordia; palabras que edifiquen en lugar de destruir.

Ahora mismo, con tanta división, ira y culpa en nuestro mundo, este mensaje es muy oportuno. Antes de hablar (o comentar, criticar o publicar en redes sociales), debemos preguntarnos: "¿Estoy tirando piedras con mis palabras?". Y si hemos herido a alguien, "¿Estoy dispuesto a ofrecer palabras que sanen?".

Esta semana, prestemos atención a las palabras que usamos, tanto en persona como en línea. Dejemos de lado las piedras que nos tientan a lanzar y, en su lugar, elijamos palabras de compasión, paciencia y misericordia.

Dear Parishioners,
We are almost near the 50 pound mark! Please help us collect canceled stamps as they are being used to help the poor both here and in struggling countries by the Sisters of the Holy Cross in Notre Dame, Indiana. Please bring canceled or new stamps to church. There is a box for them in the hallway. No need to trim them, but if you do, leave a 1/4" border. Old postcards or stamp albums are also needed.

New Rosary Makers Group Starting at St. Francis-St. Maximilian

We are excited to announce the launch of our new Rosary Makers Club at SFSM! This is a wonderful opportunity for individuals of all ages to come together in fellowship and faith while learning the beautiful art of making rosaries. The club will initially meet twice monthly in the parish hall. Beginning the first Tuesday of the month after morning mass/rosary/confessions beginning May 6th. We will have an evening meeting in the parish hall on the last Wednesday of the month beginning May 28th at 7pm. Whether you are experienced in rosary making or a complete beginner, all are welcome! Our goal is to create rosaries that will be distributed to those in need and those who are looking to deepen their prayer life. Supplies and materials will be provided up front, and teaching & guidance will be available for beginners. If you know how to make rosaries and are willing to share your talents and gifts in teaching others, please let us know! Many hands make many rosaries! Join us in this meaningful ministry as we come together to create something beautiful for the glory of God and the benefit of others. If you have any questions or would like to sign up, please contact Mike Van Tiem at 586-321-6631 or call the parish office 586-598-3314. Let's pray and craft together as a community of faith!

Nuevo grupo de rosarios en San Francisco-San Maximiliano

Nos complace anunciar el lanzamiento de nuestro nuevo Club de Rosarios en SFSM. Esta es una maravillosa oportunidad para que personas de todas las edades se reúnan en comunión y fe mientras aprenden el hermoso arte de hacer rosarios. El club se reunirá inicialmente dos veces al mes en el salón parroquial. Comenzará el primer martes de cada mes, después de la misa matutina, el rosario y las confesiones, a partir del 6 de mayo. Tendremos una reunión vespertina en el salón parroquial el último miércoles del mes, a partir del 28 de mayo a las 19:00 h. Tanto si tienes experiencia en la confección de rosarios como si eres principiante, ¡todos son bienvenidos! Nuestro objetivo es crear rosarios que se distribuirán a quienes los necesiten y a quienes buscan profundizar en su vida de oración. Se proporcionarán materiales con antelación, y se ofrecerá enseñanza y orientación a los principiantes. Si sabes hacer rosarios y estás dispuesto a compartir tus talentos y dones para enseñar a otros, ¡háznoslo saber! ¡Muchas manos hacen muchos rosarios! Únase a nosotros en este significativo ministerio mientras nos unimos para crear algo hermoso para la gloria de Dios y el beneficio de los demás. Si tiene alguna pregunta o desea inscribirse, comuníquese con Mike Van Tiem al 586-321-6631 o llame a la oficina parroquial al 586-598-3314. ¡Oremos y trabajemos juntos como comunidad de fe!

Next May (2026), we will joyfully celebrate the 75th Anniversary of St. Francis-St. Maximilian Parish! It may seem far away, but time will fly, and we need your help now. We will be gathering historical photos, stories, and memories that capture the journey of our parish—from its beginnings as a mission to the thriving faith community it is today. If you have any of these treasures or would like to contribute in any way, please contact the parish office. We will be holding an initial planning meeting at the end of April (more details to come), and we would love for each parish group to be involved. Every piece of history, every memory, and every helping hand matters as we prepare for this milestone celebration. Please prayerfully consider how you can take part in this special event!
